

Kimya & Dan

September 6th. 2017

Kimya and Dan held their ceremony and reception at the Stone Barn in Kennett Square, PA. From the beautiful wooden chairs, the white-covered barn tables and the natural centerpieces, The Stone Barn is a cute, intimate and cozy place for a beautiful rustic wedding

A couple of things that stood out the most to us in Kimya and Dan's wedding were:

- Kimya's attire: We absolutely loved her floral headpiece, as well as her colorful rain boots for her rainy wedding day.

- Centerpieces: We loved the natural centerpieces Kimya and Dan had on their guest tables. From the succulents and brightly colored flowers, to the miniature manzanita looking trees, this created the perfect rustic wedding for Kimya and Dan.

- Kimya's Wedding Ring: Kimya's wedding ring was unique and stunning. We love that she strayed from the typical diamond and went with a beautiful blue diamond.

- The Dance Floor: One of the best things about the night was how much their guests loved being out on that dance floor!
